Guidelines for Amway Business Owners (ABOs)

ADVERTISEMENT OF AMWAY PRODUCTS, SERVICES & BUSINESS

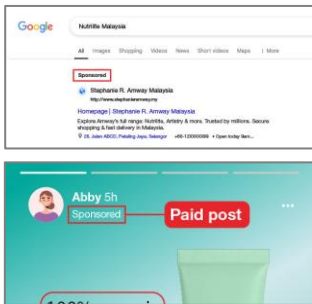

Advertising involves promoting products, services or ideas to a targeted audience through various media platforms to drive consumer action. When promoting Amway products, services or the business opportunity, ABOs must adhere strictly to the Amway Rules of Conduct (RoC), Digital Communications Standards (DCS) and Quality Assurance Standards (QAS).

These rules and guidelines are established to uphold the essential standards of behaviour to support and preserve the benefits of the Amway Sales & Marketing Plan ensuring fair and consistent practices for all ABOs.

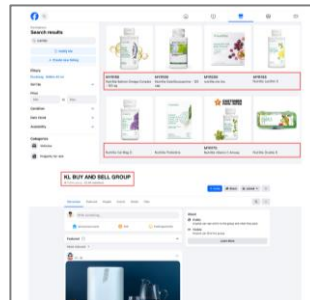

In a nutshell, ABOs are NOT ALLOWED to engage in the following:

Paid Advertising / Sponsored Ads

Classified Advertising Services

Utilise Key Opinion Leader (KOL) / Influencer to merchandise Amway products / services

Printed Media and Outdoor Advertisement

Check out examples on the different forms of advertisements HERE.

Note: Please take note that this transition will take place in stages, and products sold will be based on FIFO (First In First Out), i.e., products with existing labels will continue to sell until stocks deplete before products with new labels are made available. Product images with new product labels on Amway.my will take some time to be fully reflected. Newly launched products have already undergone this transition, while existing products will undergo this restage, with the products' formulation remaining the same.
